Hilltops Bow 24-7 To Winnipeg Gridmen

SASKATOON (CP) — Winnipeg Rods swept into sole possession of top spot in the Manitoba-Saskatchewan Junior Football League Saturday by walloping Saskatoon Hilltops 24-7.

The victory, which saw Rods score three touchdowns in the last six minutes, put the Manitoba club two points ahead of the defending champion Hilltops who suffered their first defeat in three starts.

Hilltops tailed 6-0 at the end of the first quarter, and the second period was scoreless. Saskatoon carried a 7-6 margin going into the final frame.

Ron Latourelle, Ted Warga, Frank Muzychka and Tom Metcalfe scored the Winnipeg majors while Mike Kachmar converted three and Metcalfe added one extra point.

A third-quarter Saskatoon touchdown was set up by a 100-yard run by Eddie Wright, and the second period was scoreless. Saskatoon carried a 7-6 margin going into the final frame. Hilltops tailed 6-0 at the end of the first quarter, and the second period was scoreless. Saskatoon carried a 7-6 margin going into the final frame.

A 34-yard pass from Muzychka to Ray Skerratt on the seven-yard stripe set up Winnipeg's winning major. Warga swept around the right side for the points.

Saskatoon fumbled on its first running play. Len Thibault of Rods recovering on the Hilltop 21. Two plays failed to gain any ground but Muzychka scampered to the six-yard line on a third-down fake field goal attempt. After Latourelle gained three, Muzychka scored on a quarterback sneak.

Gerry Vincent recovered a Hilltop fumble moments later on the Saskatchewan eight. Latourelle gained five and then Metcalfe ran for the major.

Winnipeg Wins At Southwood

By RALPH BAGLEY
A young junior golfer climaxed a busy and successful season in Manitoba golfing circles Sunday when he added the Southwood open golf championship to his list of 1954 achievements. Gordon Crabtree, Niakwa's young swinger who made the provincial Willingdon Cup team to highlight his year, toured the Southwood layout in 73 strokes, one over par, to lead a field of 121 golfers to the wire.

He was closely chased by no less than six players—two pros and four amateurs—with scores of 74. Joe Tachan of Elmhurst and Hal Eidsvig of Niakwa upheld the pros with cards of 74, while the amateurs finishing one stroke off the pace were Ron Fiddler and Al Patterson, of Southwood, Jack Gardner, of Pine Ridge, and Harry Critchley of Charleswood.

Cool, autumn-like weather and a stiff breeze, kept the field from shattering par over the Southwood course. The field of 121 was one of the largest to tee off in an open tournament this season, and it was featured by the appearance of 10 of the city pros.

Only 28 of the 121 starters managed to break 80 in Sunday's play, which should prove something about the course's reputation for being "easy". Six more finished with 80 on the nose.

Following the 74's were four players with 75: Allan Boes, Southwood; John Kruse, Elmhurst; Bill Bud and Bill Pidaski, St. Boniface. A pair of professionals grouped at the 76 mark—Len Harvey of Assiniboine, the Manitoba open champ, and Les Beavan, of Pine Ridge.

Jack Gardner, Pine Ridge; George Stewart, Southwood; and Roy Kepron, Elmhurst, each carded 77 strokes; while the 78's were M. Thomas and Al McMillan, St. Boniface; Otto McKush, Niakwa; Stan Topolynski, Elmhurst; Ken Toland, Southwood; and Art Kepp, Assiniboine.

The final group to beat 80, at 79, were professionals Cece Chester of St. Boniface and Hank McClure of Wildewood; and amateurs Tom Bissett, Southwood; Barry McKenzie, Wildewood; Jim McKendry, St. Boniface; and Dick Lennox, Charleswood.

Crabtree won the tournament championship, and was also top golfer in the "A" group, for golfers with handicaps of four or less. Four shared the runner-up honors: Patterson, Fiddler, Critchley and Gardner.

Among the pros, the first and second money was split between Tachan and Eidsvig, while Beavan and Harvey shared the third and fourth prizes.

In the "B" division, for handicaps of five to seven, Elmhurst's Johnny Kruse was the leader, with 75; and the runner-up prize went to Southwood's George Stewart, with 77.

H. Paquette, of Charleswood, led the "C" group, for handicaps of eight to 10, with a score of 80. The runner-up prize was shared by Vic Cancilla, of Charleswood, and Bill McCallum, of Elmhurst, both with 81.

Crabtree stayed close to regulation figures as he registered his winning one-over-par 73. He had two birdies and a bogey on the front nine for one-under-par 35, then took one birdie and three bogeys on the back nine for two-over-par 38. He blamed three-putt greens on the 16th and 18th holes as his greatest trouble. Here is his card, compared to par:

Par out 444 345 354-36
Crabtree out 444 334 364-35
Par in 453 535 434-36-72
Crabtree in 453 634 535-38-35-73

Pennant Races At a Glance

The game was viewed by millions of television fans in the United States and Hamilton. The Montreal area was blacked out.

A morning downpour didn't affect playing conditions much. It stopped in time to permit the field to dry partly out before game time.

At Toronto, Riders showed unexpected power as Johnny Gramling, 22-year-old, six-foot quarterback from South Carolina, guided their crowd-pleasing offensive with dazzling effect.

Gramling kept Argonauts off balance throughout the game. He kept them guessing whether he himself would run or pass off the option plays of the split-T and cleverly mixed this threat with off-tackle smashes by Billy Bass and Tom McHugh and daring laterals to Avatus Stone and Gene (Choo Choo) Roberts for big gains around the ends.

Riders scored two touchdowns in the first half, one of which was converted, and added a single in the fourth quarter. Ottawa led 11-0 before Argonauts managed an unconverted touchdown in the second quarter off a big break.

Except on their one touchdown drive, Argos' attack was effectively throttled by Riders. The Scullers showed little of the power that out-classed Riders 13-6 two weeks ago in their first meeting.

The crowd of 13,910 was amazed with the vast improvement of Riders who rolled up 23 first downs, 13 more than Argos, and gained 193 yards rushing. Argos' highly-touted running attack featuring Gene Wilson, Billy Cross and Dick Shatto was stopped by the hard-charging Ottawa wingline led by Jake Dunlap and Kaye Vaughan.

Argos picked up only 35 yards along the ground. In the air Riders completed 12 of 16 passes for 116 yards and Argos connected on 12 of 22 for 146 yards.

Ottawa's first touchdown was scored by Bass, former Argos full-back, after a 52-yard drive in the first quarter. A 32-yard march led to another major in the second quarter by Stone, the outstanding player of both teams with his daring running. He also kicked well, booting a single for Riders' final point, and in addition played a strong defensive game. Roberts converted Ottawa's first touchdown to account for its other point.

Dick Shatto, formerly with the University of Kentucky, scored Argos' touchdown following a 28-yard drive set up when an Ottawa play backfired. The ball was knocked from Gramling's hand as he attempted to pass and rolled from midfield to the Ottawa 28 where Royal Copeland fell on it.

After play see-sawed, Weston opened the fourth-quarter scoring when the Cats opened a terrific hole for Ethier on a quick-opening play, and the fleet backfield galloped 47 yards for a touchdown. Konikuk's convert attempt was blocked, Weston leading 28-6.

With four minutes left to play, Bell hit Frank Flagg with a long pass to the Weston 20, and Flagg ran to the one-yard-line before he was hauled down. Bell went over on a quarterback sneak to bring the count to 28-11, and the convert attempt hit the upright.

The final scoring play, late in the fourth quarter, was a thing of beauty. Konikuk heaved a long one to Dudych, and the ball was received on the dead run, over the shoulder, at the Regina 20. Dudych eluded one tackler and went the rest of the way for his fourth major score of the day. An attempted pass on the convert was knocked down and the final score stood at 33-11 for Weston.

PUNTS 'N' PASSES — Regina's Bev Bell proved an able quarterback, but was inclined to fumble and some of his long passes invited interception. Rudy Konikuk handled a good game for Weston, and got everything he could out of his club. Regina completed seven of 17 passes, but had four intercepted. Konikuk completed only two out of nine, but they went for 45 and 59-yard gains, for a total of 102 yards in the air. Along the ground, Weston moved for 195 yards, to 55 for Regina. The Wildcats picked up 11 first downs compared to seven for Regina.
